Peoples Health Promotes Melissa Pohlmann to Clinical Director of Dual-Eligible Program

METAIRIE, Louisiana – Peoples Health is pleased to announce the promotion of Melissa Pohlmann to clinical director of the Medicare Advantage company’s dual-eligible program, which focuses on plan members eligible for both Medicare and Medicaid. Pohlmann oversees the planning and coordination of care for these members. She also ensures the compliance of departmental policies and processes and assists with implementation of regulatory requirements.

Pohlmann brings more than 20 years of experience in patient care and medical administration to her role. She received her Associate of Science in nursing from Louisiana State University and her Bachelor of Science in nursing from Excelsior College. Pohlmann is also a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives and the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce, and she has completed the Louisiana State University Management & Leadership Program. During her seven years with Peoples Health, Pohlmann has served as home health and durable medical equipment manager and, most recently, as medical management operations manager.
